INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THIS REPORT

This is the Sentencing Guideline Commission's fourth annual report on felony sentencing practices of Superior Court judges in Washington State. This report includes selected felony sentences from Calendar Year 1998. It includes sentences for the felonies listed in Appendix B.<sup>1</sup>

This report is required by RCW 9.94A.105, enacted in 1995 as part of Initiative Measure No. 159.<sup>2</sup> This law requires the Commission to publish annual reports on the sentencing practices of each Superior Court judge in this state as they relate to the standard range sentencing guidelines under the Sentencing Reform Act, for specified offenses involving violence or armed offenders.<sup>3</sup>

The Commission has made every effort to ensure that this report is objective, accurate and complete. The report includes a description of Washington's felony sentencing system, the text of some of the laws that affect sentencing, definitions of terms used in the criminal justice system and other information. This information is essential to understanding the information in the tables.

Since 1984, the Superior Courts have supplied the Sentencing Guidelines Commission with a copy of each sentencing document, called a Judgment and Sentence (J&S), for every adult felony case that results in a conviction. The Commission publishes annual statistical reports summarizing that information and uses the data to estimate the impact of proposals to change sentencing laws. This report is based on Judgment and Sentence documents furnished by the Superior Courts from all 39 counties in the state. The original documents are on file with the clerk of each Superior Court and are open for public inspection and copying.

The information in this report depicts only a portion of the work of Superior Court judges. Judges hear civil cases and juvenile cases as well as adult criminal cases. Adult criminal cases include misdemeanors as well as felonies.<sup>4</sup> Felonies, in turn, comprise less than 15 percent of all cases filed in the Superior Courts.<sup>5</sup> They include property offenses,

<sup>1</sup> The Commission receives sentencing information from the county clerks and prosecuting attorneys and has attempted to obtain complete information on all sentences imposed during the report period. However, a few sentences may not have been furnished to the Commission as of the date this report was compiled. This report does not include sentences that may have been imposed for crimes committed before July 1, 1984, when the Sentencing Reform Act took effect.

<sup>5</sup> In Calendar Year 1998, 280,682 cases were filed in the Superior Courts statewide. Of these, 40,807 were criminal cases against adults. Office of Administrator for the Courts, Caseloads of the Courts of Washington 1998, p. 42.

drug offenses and some violent offenses not involving weapons or serious injury, as well as the violent, armed offenses that are the subject of this report.

The mixture of cases heard by Superior Court judges varies from judge to judge and from county to county. For example, some judges hear only civil cases, others hear both civil and criminal cases and others spend all or part of the year hearing cases involving juveniles. Some judges are assigned to complex cases that take a long time to complete, while others may hear large numbers of cases in a short period. Therefore, the number of sentences listed in this report for any one judge depicts only a part, and sometimes only a small fragment, of the judge's work in the course of the year. If a judge's name is not included in this report, the judge did not impose any sentences for the offenses listed in Appendix B during 1998.

The information in this report is affected by a number of factors, including the number of felony cases each judge handled. Readers are urged to review the narrative portion of this report, as well as the statistical tables and notes to the tables, to understand more fully the meaning of the information presented. This is a statistical report, not a description of each case. The facts of every case are different, even though the same laws may apply. Therefore, the information in this report should not be used to compare the sentencing practices of different judges or to evaluate any judge's overall performance in office.

The Commission is grateful to the hundreds of criminal justice professionals, including judges, community corrections officers, deputy prosecuting attorneys and county clerks' staff, who prepare and furnish to the Commission the sentencing documents on which this report is based. Any comments or suggestions on how to make future editions of this report more informative would be appreciated.

FELONY SENTENCING UNDER WASHINGTON LAW

THE SENTENCING REFORM ACT

Sentencing is a judicial responsibility, but judges' discretion in adult felony cases is guided by the Sentencing Reform Act of 1981, as amended ("SRA"). The SRA requires determinate sentences, where the term of confinement is specified by the court and, with limited exceptions, is served in its entirety.<sup>6</sup> There is no parole for offenders in Washington whose crimes were committed after June 30, 1984.<sup>7</sup>

The SRA applies to felonies committed by adults<sup>8</sup> on and after July 1, 1984. The Act is intended to make the criminal justice system accountable to the public by means of a felony sentencing system that structures, but does not eliminate, discretionary decisions affecting sentences. The Legislature has enumerated the purposes of the Act as follows:

- (1) To ensure that the punishment for a criminal offense is proportionate to the seriousness of the offense and to the offender's criminal history;
- (2) To promote respect for the law by providing punishment which is just;
- (3) To ensure that the punishment imposed on any offender is commensurate with the punishment imposed on others committing similar offenses;
- (4) To protect the public;
- (5) To offer the offender an opportunity to improve him or herself;
- (6) To make frugal use of the state's and local governments' resources; and
- (7) To reduce the risk of re-offending by offenders in the community.<sup>9</sup>

Under the SRA, sentences are based on the crime and on the offender's prior convictions, using a "sentencing grid" established by law. Certain types of crimes, such as violent, sex, burglary and drug offenses, are given additional weight as criminal history when sentencing for new offenses of the same type.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Offenders sentenced to jail or prison can earn early release credit through good conduct and participation in educational or work programs. State law limits earned early release time to one third of the sentence for most felonies, and 15% of the sentence for certain violent or sex offenses (See RCW 9.94A.150). Earned early release time is not available for the mandatory minimum portions of sentences for Murder 1, Assault 1, Rape 1, and Assault of a Child 1, or for any portion of life sentences or of sentence enhancements based on use of a deadly weapon.

<sup>7</sup> The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board has jurisdiction over about 780 offenders still in prison under indeterminate sentences for crimes committed before July 1, 1984. The Board determines when they are to be released, if at all, before their statutory maximum terms expire.

<sup>8</sup> Some juveniles (under age 18) are prosecuted as adults and, if convicted of felonies, are sentenced under the SRA. See RCW 13.04.030 and 13.40.110.

<sup>9</sup> See RCW 9.94A.010.

STANDARD RANGE SENTENCES

In most cases, the sentencing grid determines the standard range of time in jail or in prison to which the court may sentence an offender. Sentences of 12 months or less are served in a county jail. Those of more than 12 months are served in state facilities operated by the Department of Corrections. Sentences within the standard range may not be appealed. The standard range is sometimes referred to as the “presumptive range.”

In certain circumstances, offenders are eligible to receive certain alternative types of standard range sentences authorized by law, where the range is modified or suspended. These include nonviolent first-time offenders, first-time sex offenders not convicted of first- or second-degree rape and sellers of small quantities of drugs. These alternative standard range sentences are permitted at the judge’s discretion, but are not required, for offenders meeting the criteria specified in RCW 9.94A.120.<sup>11</sup>

A court must impose other legally-mandated sentences under specified circumstances<sup>12</sup>. For instance, the standard range sentence for aggravated first degree murder is either death or life imprisonment, as determined by a jury.<sup>13</sup> Mandatory minimum sentences apply to first degree murder, certain types of first degree assault or assault of a child and first degree rape.<sup>14</sup> In addition, an offender who has previously been convicted of two specified “most serious offenses,” or of one specified sex offense, must receive a life sentence under the Persistent Offender Accountability Act.<sup>15</sup>

EXCEPTIONAL SENTENCES

Sentences above or below the standard range, which are not specifically authorized as alternatives or mandated by law, are called exceptional sentences. Mitigated exceptional sentences (below the standard range) may be as low as no imprisonment. Aggravated exceptional sentences (above the standard range) may be as high as the statutory <sup>10</sup> Appendix C(1) reproduces the sentencing grid established under RCW 9.94A.310. Appendix C(2) is the list of crimes ranked by seriousness level, found in RCW 9.94A.320. Appendix C(3) shows the rules for computing the offender score, based on criminal history, in RCW 9.94A.360. See also the Adult Sentencing Guidelines Manual, available from the Commission. Note that these laws may have been amended since the time sentences in this report were imposed.

<sup>15</sup> The Act, known as “Three Strikes and You’re Out,” was adopted by a citizen initiative in 1993. The “most serious offenses” that constitute “strikes” are defined in RCW 9.94A.030. The 1996 Legislature amended that section to impose a life sentence on the second conviction of specified sex offenses (“Two Strikes and You’re Out”). See Chapter 289, Laws of 1996; see also Chapters 70 and 339, Laws of 1997. Because judges must impose life sentences on defendants found to be persistent offenders, those sentences are reported herein as standard range sentences.

maximum term allowable for the crime.<sup>16</sup> Judges can impose exceptional sentences only if there are substantial and compelling reasons to sentence the offender above or below the standard range. The reasons justifying a judge's departure from the standard range must be set forth in written findings of fact and conclusions of law, filed with the Judgment and Sentence.<sup>17</sup>

The SRA includes an illustrative, non-exclusive list of aggravating and mitigating factors justifying exceptional sentences. The appellate courts have upheld exceptional sentences for other reasons and have also overturned sentences when the reasons were not found consistent with the purposes of the SRA.<sup>18</sup> On occasion, a sentence within the standard range is classified as an exceptional sentence because the judge ordered the offender to meet conditions not normally authorized by law.

OTHER SENTENCES

The tables in this report include a few felony sentences that do not fall into any of the categories described above. Those sentences are most often the result of clerical errors or of miscalculation of the standard range. They most often result from errors by prosecution, correctional or clerical staff, rather than from decisions of the judges themselves. If such a sentence has been served by the time the error is detected, or if the sentence has been agreed to by the prosecution in return for the defendant's guilty plea, it generally cannot be modified.

The tables in this report also include a few sentences that judges intended to be within the standard range, but which were determined under an interpretation of statutory provisions on which Superior Court judges have differed, and where the difference has not been resolved through appeals. The standard range actually applicable in those cases depends on resolution of the legal issues in dispute.<sup>19</sup> The sentences for those cases are listed as "other" in the tables of this report.

This report does not include any sentences that may have been imposed for crimes committed before July 1, 1984, when the SRA took effect. Such sentences, if any, are indeterminate and cannot be recorded in the Commission's database.

<sup>16</sup> Felonies are classified as Class A, B or C. For most felonies, the maximum possible sentence is life imprisonment for Class A, ten years for Class B and five years for Class C (RCW 9A.20.021). If the statute creating a felony does not provide a classification, the classification is based on the maximum term of imprisonment authorized for the first conviction: Class A if the term is 20 years or more, Class B if it is at least eight but less than 20 years; Class C if it is less than eight years (RCW 9.94A.035). If the statute creating a felony provides neither a classification nor a maximum sentence, it is presumed to be a Class B felony with a ten-year maximum sentence (RCW 9.92.010). Maximum sentences include fines as well as imprisonment.

<sup>18</sup> The illustrative list of reasons for exceptional sentences is at RCW 9.94A.390. A substantial body of case law has developed on the reasons that do and do not justify exceptional sentences.

CONSECUTIVE AND CONCURRENT SENTENCING

When an offender is sentenced at the same time for more than one offense, the sentences must be served concurrently (at the same time), except for serious violent offenses, which must be served consecutively (one after the other). When sentences run concurrently, each conviction is counted as part of the offender's criminal history, so the sentence for the more serious offense is longer than it would be without the additional convictions.<sup>20</sup>

FACTORS TO CONSIDER IN REVIEWING THIS REPORT

PROSECUTORS' CHARGING AND PLEA NEGOTIATING PRACTICES

State law includes standards to guide prosecutors' decisions about charging and plea agreements. However, those guidelines are only advisory.<sup>21</sup> There are variations in the charging and plea negotiation practices and policies used by prosecutors in each of the state's 39 counties. This means that the same criminal conduct may result in different sentences for different offenders, depending on charging and plea disposition policies in different counties, and on negotiations and agreements between the prosecution and the defense in particular cases.

For example, a judge might impose different sentences in different cases involving the same criminal conduct by defendants with identical criminal histories, as a result of any of the following types of plea agreements between the prosecutor and the defendant:

- The prosecutor reduced the charge in return for the defendant's plea of guilty, resulting in a sentence shorter than would have applied to the crime originally charged;
- The charge was not reduced, but the prosecutor recommended a shorter sentence in return for the defendant's plea of guilty to the same charge; or
- The charge was not reduced, but the prosecutor agreed not to file additional or more serious charges in return for the defendant's plea of guilty to the original charge. Such an agreement would result in a shorter sentence than if the defendant had been convicted of additional charges.

Differences in plea agreements might also result in the same sentences being imposed in cases where the defendants engaged in different criminal conduct. All the statistical information in this report should be viewed in light of these realities.

<sup>20</sup> See RCW 9.94A.400 (in Appendix C(4)) for the standards for concurrent and consecutive sentencing. "Serious violent offenses," sentenced consecutively to each other, are defined in RCW 9.94A.030 as Murder 1 and 2, Manslaughter 1, Homicide by Abuse, Assault 1, Kidnapping 1, Rape 1, Assault of a Child 1, or attempts, solicitations or conspiracies to commit these offenses.

JUDICIAL DISCRETION AND PLEA AGREEMENTS

Washington’s determinate sentencing system restricts judicial discretion, in most cases, to deciding what term of confinement to impose within the standard sentence range and what other conditions to apply. After a defendant has been convicted of a specific offense, the judge holds a sentencing hearing where the prosecutor and defense counsel may make recommendations. These recommendations are often based on a plea agreement.<sup>22</sup> In most cases, the standard range for the term of confinement is determined by the offense the prosecutor has charged and by the offender’s criminal history, which is a matter of record.

Over 90 percent of felony convictions in Washington result from pleas of guilty rather than from trials. Most defendants who plead guilty do so as part of an agreement that will affect the sentence they receive. Such an agreement is with the prosecutor and not with the judge. In fact, judges are prohibited from taking part in plea negotiations.<sup>23</sup> Judges are not bound by sentencing recommendations based on plea agreements, but they have the authority to reject plea agreements only when the judge finds that the agreement is not consistent with the interests of justice.<sup>24</sup>

PROSECUTORS’ RECOMMENDATIONS

Initiative 159 requires that, when an exceptional sentence is imposed above or below the standard range, the Judgment and Sentence must indicate whether “a similar sentence” was recommended by the prosecutor.<sup>25</sup> This information is occasionally not provided on all J&S documents received by the Commission, sometimes because the prosecutor did not make any recommendation. In cases where the J&S shows that the prosecutor recommended a similar sentence, the recommendation was for the type of sentence given, but not necessarily the specific sentence. For example, a prosecutor might have recommended an exceptional sentence of a certain length, but not of the length actually imposed.

JUDGES’ WORKLOADS

The Superior Courts in different counties divide judicial workloads in different ways. Some judges are assigned to certain types of felony cases, others to other types of felonies or to different kinds of cases altogether. Assignment patterns in large counties, where there may be dozens of judges, differ from those in small counties, where there are only one or two. These assignment patterns can produce different sentencing patterns based on the kinds of cases assigned, not the choices the judges make. The number of sentences listed in this report for any judge is not an indication of the judge’s overall workload.

LIMITATIONS OF THE DATA

The sentencing practices described in this report relate only to the violent, armed crimes designated for reporting in Initiative 159 (listed in Appendix B). These crimes are more severe than most other felonies and usually carry more severe sentences. Therefore, this report does not reflect sentencing practices for all felonies.

Statistics are particularly difficult to interpret when they apply to a very small number of cases. Many judges sentenced only a few people because they spent most of the year hearing civil cases, working in other stages of criminal case processing or fulfilling administrative responsibilities. The number of sentences a judge imposed does not reflect that judge's overall workload or performance.

HOW TO READ THE TABLES IN THIS REPORT

NAME OF JUDGE

The reported under a judge's name are all those cases in which the judge imposed cases a felony sentence for an offense required to be included in this report. This report includes all regular and pro tem judges of the Superior Court who imposed such sentences during 1998. If a judge is not listed in the tables, he or she did not impose any sentences subject to this report in 1998. The judges are listed alphabetically on a statewide basis.

COUNTY

The county listed for each offense is the county in which the case was filed and in which the judge imposed the sentence. Some judges serve in more than one county, either because counties have combined their Superior Court systems or because judges serve as visiting judges in different counties to hear particular cases.

CAUSE NUMBER

The cause number listed for each case is the same number filed in the county clerk's office. This is a unique identifying number (within each county) that can be used to retrieve, from the county clerk, the original Judgment and Sentence and other documents filed in the case.

VERDICT

"Plea" means the conviction was based on a plea of guilty by the defendant. This plea may have been entered as part of an agreement with the prosecutor, subject to court approval. "Jury" means the conviction was based on a jury's finding of guilt after a trial. "Bench" means the conviction was based on a judge's finding of guilt after a trial without a jury.

MOST SERIOUS CURRENT OFFENSE

The most serious current is the offense for which the offender was sentenced. If the offense shown is not among those required to be reported (see list in Appendix B), it was accompanied by a reportable offense with a shorter sentence. The sentence shown reflects both the reportable offense and any other offenses sentenced in the same case. Sentences for multiple offenses may run either concurrently or consecutively, depending on the offenses involved.<sup>26</sup>

SENTENCE TYPE

- Standard Sentence Range

The most common type of sentence is one that is within the range determined by the seriousness level of the current offense and by the number and type of previous convictions, using the sentencing grid (see Appendix C). Standard range sentences include life sentences for persistent offenders and life or death sentences for aggravated first-degree murder.
- Aggravated Exceptional

An aggravated exceptional sentence is above the standard range, based on substantial and compelling reasons stated in writing by the judge.
- Mitigated Exceptional

A mitigated exceptional sentence is below the standard range, based on substantial and compelling reasons stated in writing by the judge.
- Within Exceptional

A sentence within the standard range is considered exceptional when conditions not otherwise authorized by law are imposed, based on substantial and compelling reasons stated in writing by the judge.
- First-time Offender Waiver (FTOW)

The FTOW is an “alternative standard range” sentence that may include up to 90 days confinement and affirmative conditions. The standard range displayed for such a sentence is the range that would have applied if the offender had not been classified as a First-time Offender. See Appendix D.
- Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative (SSOSA)

Under SSOSA, the standard sentence range is suspended, conditioned on up to six months in jail and completion of sex offender treatment. The sentence shown is the sentence the court suspended. See Appendix D.

<sup>26</sup> See RCW 9.94A.400 (in Appendix C(4)) for standards governing whether sentences run concurrently or consecutively, and how multiple offenses affect the offender’s criminal history for purposes of determining the standard range.

SENTENCE IMPOSED (MONTHS)

The term of confinement ordered by the court is displayed in months, rounded to two decimal places. This term may be reduced by earned release credit.<sup>27</sup> For SSOSA sentences, the sentence displayed is what was imposed and then suspended, conditioned on up to six months in jail and completion of sex offender treatment.

STANDARD RANGE: MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM (MIN. - MAX.)

The range of months of confinement within which the standard sentence range would fall is displayed, based on the offense of conviction and on the offender's criminal history. In some cases, such as anticipatory offenses, there is a difference between the standard range and the actual sentence due to rounding.

PROSECUTOR RECOMMENDED SIMILAR SENTENCE

This information appears for exceptional sentences and for sentences under the FTOW and SSOSA alternatives. "Yes" means the J&S indicated that the prosecutor recommended a sentence of the same type as the judge imposed. "No" means the J&S indicated that the prosecutor did not recommend such a sentence. "Unknown" means there was no indication on the J&S of a prosecutor's recommendation.

REASONS FOR EXCEPTIONAL SENTENCE

The reasons for a court's decision to impose an exceptional sentence are shown in the findings of fact and conclusions of law filed with the J&S. These are categories of reasons that are used in the Commission's statistical reports, rather than verbatim quotations from court documents. The findings and conclusions, including the exact language used by the court, are on file with the county clerk.

Note 1: First-time Offender Waiver (FTOW) sentences are considered an "alternative standard range" sentence. As part of the FTOW sentence, the court may order up to three months confinement. The standard range displayed is the range applicable if the offender had not been classified as a First-Time Offender.

Note 2: Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative (SSOSA) sentences are considered standard range sentences. In SSOSA sentences, the court orders a sentence within the standard range, and then suspends the sentence contingent on successful adherence to the conditions of the suspended sentence. As part of the SSOSA sentence, the court may order up to six months confinement.

Note 3: Persistent Offenders ("Three Strike" or "Two Strike" offenders) are sentenced to a standard range of life in prison without parole. The standard range displayed is the range applicable if the offender had not been classified as a persistent

Note 4: Aggravated Murder sentences are limited to a standard range of either "life without parole" or "death."

Note 5: "Other" is a residual category for either of two types of sentences: (1) Those in which a technical error has been made (e.g., miscalculation of offender score). Such errors are usually made by court personnel other than the judge. (2) Those where the "standard range" depends on a disputed interpretation of law, i.e., where Superior Court judges have interpreted the same statutory language differently, resulting in different sentences. For these sentences, the standard range shown in this record is a data entry convention chosen by SGC staff for statistical purposes only, rather than a statement of the range actually applicable to the case. The range actually applicable depends on the resolution of the legal issue in dispute, either through appeals or by legislation.

RCW 9.94A.105 Judicial records for sentences of certain offenders (1) A current, newly created or reworked judgment and sentence document for each felony sentencing shall record any and all recommended sentencing agreements or plea agreements and the sentences for any and all felony crimes kept as public records under RCW 9.94A.103 shall contain the clearly printed name and legal signature of the sentencing judge. The judgment and sentence document as defined in this section shall also provide additional space for the sentencing judge's reasons for going either above or below the presumptive sentence range for any and all felony crimes covered as public records under RCW 9.94A.103. Both the sentencing judge and the prosecuting attorney's office shall each retain or receive a completed copy of each sentencing document as defined in this section for their own records.

(2) The sentencing guidelines commission shall be sent a completed copy of the judgment and sentence document upon conviction for each felony sentencing under subsection (1) of this section and shall compile a yearly and cumulative judicial record of each sentencing judge in regards to his or her sentencing practices for any and all felony crimes involving:

- (a) Any violent offense as defined in this chapter;
- (b) Any most serious offense as defined in this chapter;
- (c) Any felony with any deadly weapon special verdict under RCW 9.94A.125;

(e) The felony crimes of possession of a machine gun, possessing a stolen firearm, drive-by shooting, theft of a firearm, unlawful possession of a firearm in the first or second degree, and/or use of a machine gun in a felony.

(3) The sentencing guidelines commission shall compare each individual judge's sentencing practices to the standard or presumptive sentence range for any and all felony crimes listed in subsection (2) of this section for the appropriate offense level as defined in RCW 9.94A.320, offender score as defined in RCW 9.94A.360, and any applicable deadly weapon enhancements as defined in RCW 9.94A.310 (3) or (4), or both. These comparative records shall be retained and made available to the public for review in a current, newly created or reworked official published document by the sentencing guidelines commission.

(4) Any and all felony sentences which are either above or below the standard or presumptive sentence range in subsection (3) of this section shall also mark whether the prosecuting attorney in the case also recommended a similar sentence, if any, which was either above or below the presumptive sentence range and shall also indicate if the sentence was in conjunction with an approved alternative sentencing option including a first-time offender waiver, sex offender sentencing alternative, or other prescribed sentencing option.

(5) If any completed judgment and sentence document as defined in subsection (1) of this section is not sent to the sentencing guidelines commission as required in subsection (2) of this section, the sentencing guidelines commission shall have the authority and shall undertake reasonable and necessary steps to assure that all past, current, and future sentencing documents as defined in subsection (1) of this section are received by the sentencing guidelines commission. ### (3) CRIMINAL HISTORY SCORING RULES

RCW 9.94A.360 Offender score. (Effective until January 1, 1999.) The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Class A and sex prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions other than sex offenses shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without committing any crime that subsequently results in a conviction. Class C prior felony convictions other than sex offenses shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without committing any crime that subsequently results in a conviction. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without committing any crime that subsequently results in a conviction. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

(3) Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law. Federal convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law. If there is no clearly comparable offense under Washington law or the offense is one that is usually considered subject to exclusive federal jurisdiction, the offense shall be scored as a class C felony equivalent if it was a felony under the relevant federal statute.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5)(a) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(i) Prior offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently or prior juvenile offenses for which sentences were served consecutively, whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses using the "same criminal conduct" analysis found in RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used. The current sentencing court may presume that such other prior offenses were not the same criminal conduct from sentences imposed on separate dates, or in separate counties or jurisdictions, or in separate complaints, indictments, or informations;

(ii) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(b) As used in this subsection (5), "served concurrently" means that: (i) The latter sentence was imposed with specific reference to the former; (ii) the concurrent relationship of the sentences was judicially imposed; and (iii) the concurrent timing of the sentences was not the result of a probation or parole revocation on the former offense.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11) or (12) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Assault of a Child 1, Kidnapping 1, Homicide by Abuse, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide or Vehicular Assault; for each felony offense or serious traffic offense, count one point for each adult and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior conviction.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count three points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and two points for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060, Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070, or Escape from Community Custody, RCW 72.09.310, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(14) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as 1/2 point.

(15) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2 or residential burglary, count priors as in subsection (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction.

(16) If the present conviction is for a sex offense, count priors as in subsections (7) through (15) of this section; however count three points for each adult and juvenile prior sex offense conviction.

(17) If the present conviction is for an offense committed while the offender was under community placement, add one point. [1997 c 338 § 5. Prior: 1995 c 316 § 1; 1995 c 101 § 1; prior: 1992 c 145 § 10; 1992 c 75 § 4; 1990 c 3 § 706; 1989 c 271 § 103; prior: 1988 c 157 § 3; 1988 c 153 § 12; 1987 c 456 § 4; 1986 c 257 § 25; 1984 c 209 § 19; 1983 c 115 § 7.]

(4) CONSECUTIVE OR CONCURRENT SENTENCES

RCW 9.94A.400 Consecutive or concurrent sentences (1)(a) Except as provided in (b) or (c) of this subsection, whenever a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(g) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390. "Same criminal conduct," as used in this subsection, means two or more crimes that require the same criminal intent, are committed at the same time and place, and involve the same victim. This definition applies in cases involving vehicular assault or vehicular homicide even if the victims occupied the same vehicle.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's prior convictions and other current convictions that are not serious violent offenses in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(c) If an offender is convicted under RCW 9.41.040 for unlawful possession of a firearm in the first or second degree and for the felony crimes of theft of a firearm or possession of a stolen firearm, or both, then the offender shall serve consecutive sentences for each conviction of the felony crimes listed in this subsection, and for each firearm unlawfully possessed.

(2)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of confinement, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(b) Whenever a second or later felony conviction results in community supervision with conditions not currently in effect, under the prior sentence or sentences of community supervision the court may require that the conditions of community supervision contained in the second or later sentence begin during the immediate term of community supervision and continue throughout the duration of the consecutive term of community supervision.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences. Except for exceptional sentences as authorized under RCW 9.94A.120(2), if two or more sentences that run consecutively include periods of community supervision, the aggregate of the community supervision period shall not exceed twenty-four months. [1998 c 235 § 2; 1996 c 199 § 3; 1995 c 167 § 2; 1990 c 3 § 704. Prior: 1988 c 157 § 5; 1988 c 143 § 24; 1987 c 456 § 5; 1986 c 257 § 28; 1984 c 209 § 25; 1983 c 115 § 11.]

(5) PLEA NEGOTIATIONS AND AGREEMENTS

RCW 9.94A.080 Plea agreements--Discussions--Contents of agreements. The prosecutor and the attorney for the defendant, or the defendant when acting pro se, may engage in discussions with a view toward reaching an agreement that, upon the entering of a plea to a charged offense or to a lesser or related offense, the prosecutor will do any of the following:

- (1) Move for dismissal of other charges or counts;
- (2) Recommend a particular sentence within the sentence range applicable to the offense or offenses to which the offender pled guilty;
- (3) Recommend a particular sentence outside of the sentence range;
- (4) Agree to file a particular charge or count;
- (5) Agree not to file other charges or counts; or
- (6) Make any other promise to the defendant, except that in no instance may the prosecutor agree not to allege prior convictions.

In a case involving a crime against persons as defined in RCW 9.94A.440, the prosecutor shall make reasonable efforts to inform the victim of the violent offense of the nature of and reasons for the plea agreement, including all offenses the prosecutor has agreed not to file, and ascertain any objections or comments the victim has to the plea agreement.

The court shall not participate in any discussions under this section. [1995 c 288 § 1; 1981 c 137 § 8.]

RCW 9.94A.090 Plea agreements--Information to court--Approval or disapproval--Sentencing judge not bound. (1) If a plea agreement has been reached by the prosecutor and the defendant pursuant to RCW 9.94A.080, they shall at the time of the defendant's plea state to the court, on the record, the nature of the agreement and the reasons for the agreement. The prosecutor shall inform the court on the record whether the victim or victims of all crimes against persons, as defined in RCW 9.94A.440, covered by the plea agreement have expressed any objections to or comments on the nature of and reasons for the plea agreement. The court, at the time of the plea, shall determine if the agreement is consistent with the interests of justice and with the prosecuting standards. If the court determines it is not consistent with the interests of justice and with the prosecuting standards, the court shall, on the record, inform the defendant and the prosecutor that they are not bound by the agreement and that the defendant may withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty, if one has been made, and enter a plea of not guilty.

(2) The sentencing judge is not bound by any recommendations contained in an allowed plea agreement and the defendant shall be so informed at the time of plea. [1995 c 288 § 2; 1984 c 209 § 4; 1981 c 137 § 9.]

RCW 9.94A.100 Plea agreements--Criminal history. The prosecuting attorney and the defendant shall each provide the court with their understanding of what the defendant's criminal history is prior to a plea of guilty pursuant to a plea agreement. All disputed issues as to criminal history shall be decided at the sentencing hearing. [1981 c 137 § 10.]

(6) RECOMMENDED PROSECUTING STANDARDS

RCW 9.94A.430 Introduction. These standards are intended solely for the guidance of prosecutors in the state of Washington. They are not intended to, do not and may not be relied upon to create a right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by a party in litigation with the state. [1983 c 115 § 14.]

RCW 9.94A.440 Evidentiary sufficiency. (1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A prosecuting attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

- (i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
- (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
- (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
- (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

- (i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;
- (ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;
- (iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder. With regard to offenses prohibited by RCW 9A.44.040, 9A.44.050, 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, 9A.44.079, 9A.44.083, 9A.44.086, 9A.44.089, and 9A.64.020 the prosecutor should avoid pre-filing agreements or diversions intended to place the accused in a program of treatment or counseling, so that treatment, if determined to be beneficial, can be provided pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(8).

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table below for the crimes within these categories.

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or

(b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

(a) Charging a higher degree;

(b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

(1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;

(2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and

(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and

(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended;

or

(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

(1) Polygraph testing;

(2) Hypnosis;

(3) Electronic surveillance;

(4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Victim(s)

Discussions with the victim(s) or victims' representatives regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur before the filing of charges. The discussions may be considered by the prosecutor in charging and disposition decisions, and should be considered before reaching any agreement with the defendant regarding these decisions. [1996 c 93 § 2; 1995 c 288 § 3. Prior: 1992 c 145 § 11; 1992 c 75 § 5; 1989 c 332 § 2; 1988 c 145 § 13; 1986 c 257 § 30; 1983 c 115 § 15.]

RCW 9.94A.450 Plea dispositions. STANDARD: (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a defendant will normally be expected to plead guilty to the charge or charges which adequately describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct or go to trial.

(2) In certain circumstances, a plea agreement with a defendant in exchange for a plea of guilty to a charge or charges that may not fully describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct may be necessary and in the public interest. Such situations may include the following:

- (a) Evidentiary problems which make conviction on the original charges doubtful;
- (b) The defendant's willingness to cooperate in the investigation or prosecution of others whose criminal conduct is more serious or represents a greater public threat;
- (c) A request by the victim when it is not the result of pressure from the defendant;
- (d) The discovery of facts which mitigate the seriousness of the defendant's conduct;
- (e) The correction of errors in the initial charging decision;
- (f) The defendant's history with respect to criminal activity;
- (g) The nature and seriousness of the offense or offenses charged;
- (h) The probable effect on witnesses. [1983 c 115 § 16.]

RCW 9.94A.460 Sentence recommendations. STANDARD:

The prosecutor may reach an agreement regarding sentence recommendations.

The prosecutor shall not agree to withhold relevant information from the court concerning the plea agreement. [1983 c 115 § 17.]

APPENDIX D: ALTERNATIVE STANDARD-RANGE SENTENCES

- First-time Offender Waiver (FTOW). Offenders convicted of a felony that is not a violent or sex offense or a sale of certain drugs, and who have no prior felony convictions, can receive an individualized sentence under the First-time Offender Waiver. Such a sentence may include up to 90 days in jail, and up to two years of community supervision, subject to conditions such as treatment, education, holding a job, performing community service work, staying within prescribed geographical boundaries, paying restitution and other financial obligations and reporting as directed to the court and a community corrections officer.<sup>3</sup>
- Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative (SSOSA). Certain first-time sex offenders, not convicted of Rape 1 or 2, can receive a SSOSA sentence if the court finds that they can be treated in a community setting. The court must consider the victim’s opinion whether the offender should receive this sentence. A SSOSA sentence is a standard-range sentence to jail or prison, suspended on condition that the offender receive inpatient or outpatient treatment and meet other requirements. Up to six months in jail may be required.<sup>4</sup>

APPENDIX E: MANDATORY STANDARD-RANGE SENTENCES

- Aggravated First Degree Murder. Defendants convicted of this offense are sentenced either to death or to life imprisonment, based on the decision of the jury.<sup>5</sup>
- Persistent Offender (“Three Strikes And You’re Out”). Certain offenders convicted of “most serious offenses,”<sup>6</sup> who have previously been convicted of “most serious offenses” on two separate occasions, are sentenced to life imprisonment.<sup>7</sup> If the “most serious offenses” are specified sex offenses, the life sentence is imposed on the second separate conviction.<sup>8</sup>

<sup>8</sup> RCW 9.94A.030(27) as amended by chapter 289, Laws of 1996. This “Two Strikes You’re Out” provision took effect for crimes committed on and after June 6, 1996.

APPENDIX F: GLOSSARY OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND SENTENCING TERMS

Aggravated murder: First degree murder where one or more specified aggravating circumstances existed (see RCW 10.95.020). A defendant convicted of aggravated first degree murder is punished by death or life imprisonment, as determined by a jury after a special sentencing proceeding (see RCW Chapter 10.95).

Charge: An offense that the defendant is alleged to have committed. The sentence is based on the charge of which the defendant is convicted. This may be a different charge from that originally filed by the prosecutor.

Concurrent sentences: Sentences for separate offenses that run at the same time. Most SRA sentences for multiple offenses are concurrent, but longer than they would be for a single offense (see RCW 9.94A.400).

Consecutive sentences: Sentences for separate offenses that run consecutively to one another, extending the total length of imprisonment. These are imposed for specified serious violent offenses (see RCW 9.94A.030(31) and 9.94A.400).

Conviction: A determination by a court or jury that a defendant has been proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, to be guilty of a particular crime. Conviction may be based on a plea of guilty, or on a verdict of a jury or judge after trial.

Court: A person or body of persons authorized by law to hear and decide civil or criminal cases. In Washington, the Superior Courts hear and decide felony and misdemeanor cases, District Courts hear and decide misdemeanors, and the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court hear and decide appeals from these and other trial-level courts.

Crime: Conduct which violates a specific state law prohibiting such conduct and designating it as a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor. Same meaning as “offense.”

Deadly weapon: An implement or instrument that has the capacity to inflict death and, from the manner in which it is used, may easily and readily produce death. Includes firearms and other weapons listed in RCW 9.94A.125.

Defendant: A person formally charged in court with having committed one or more crimes.

Determinate sentence: A sentence of fixed duration and/or specified conditions, determined by the court according to standards set forth in law.

Enhancement: A period of confinement added to a sentence because of particular circumstances of the crime. Sentences may be enhanced because the offender was armed with a firearm or other deadly weapon, sold illegal drugs within a specified distance of a school or other protected area, or sold illegal drugs in a jail or prison.

Exceptional sentence: A sentence to confinement for a longer or shorter period than the standard range, or with conditions not otherwise permitted to be imposed, based on substantial and compelling reasons stated in writing by the judge. An exceptional sentence may involve a term of confinement within the standard range and conditions not otherwise authorized. Either the prosecutor or the defendant may appeal an exceptional sentence.

Felony (Classes A, B, C): A crime whose statutory maximum sentence exceeds one year. The statutory maximum sentence for a Class A felony is life imprisonment, for a Class B felony is ten years, for a Class C felony is five years. Certain felonies are classified according to the sentence prescribed by law, rather than having their maximum sentence determined by their classification. The statutory maximum sentence for felonies usually exceeds the standard range.

File: To submit a document, such as a felony Judgment and Sentence, to the clerk of a court for maintenance in a permanent record.

Firearm: A weapon or device from which a projectile may be fired by an explosive such as gunpowder (RCW 9.41.010).

First Time Offender Waiver (FTOW): An alternative standard-range sentence for certain nonviolent first-time offenders, that may include up to 90 days in jail and conditions determined by the judge (see RCW 9.94A.120(5)).

Gross misdemeanor: An offense whose statutory maximum sentence does not exceed one year in jail. See also “misdemeanor.” The Sentencing Reform Act does not apply to gross misdemeanors.

Jail: A county or city facility housing defendants awaiting trial or convicted and sentenced to not more than one year.

Judge: A non-partisan elected official authorized to hear and decide cases in the legal system. Superior Court judges are state officials elected at the county level for four-year terms.

Misdemeanor: An offense whose statutory maximum sentence does not exceed 90 days in jail. See also “gross misdemeanor.” The Sentencing Reform Act does not apply to misdemeanors.

Most serious offense: One of a category of felonies for which the sentence is life imprisonment after three separate convictions; a “strike” under the Persistent Offender Accountability Act (see RCW 9.94A.030(23)). Certain sex offenses result in a life sentence after the second “strike.”

Offender score: In calculating the standard range for a determinate sentence, the factor based on the offender’s criminal history. The offender score consists of previous or accompanying felony convictions. Certain convictions are scored at two or three points. See RCW 9.94A.360.

Offense: Conduct which violates a specific state law prohibiting such conduct and designating it as a felony, gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor. Same meaning as “crime.”

Persistent offender: An offender who has been convicted on three separate occasions of “most serious offenses” (“strikes”), or on two separate occasions of specified sex offenses. A persistent offender is sentenced to life imprisonment (see RCW 9.94A.030(27) and 9.94A.120(4)).

Plea agreement (plea bargain): An agreement between a prosecuting attorney and a defendant, in which the defendant agrees to plead guilty to a specified charge or charges in return for the prosecutor’s promise to drop other charges, not file other charges or make specified sentence recommendations. A plea agreement is subject to the judge’s approval, but the judge may not take part in negotiations and is not bound by the agreement.

Prison: A state facility housing defendants who have been convicted and sentenced to more than one year’s confinement.

Prosecuting attorney: A partisan elected county official responsible for filing and prosecuting criminal charges and performing other legal duties.

Sentence: An order of a court requiring specified punishment of an offender after conviction of one or more crimes. A sentence may include a fine, imprisonment, restitution, supervision under specified conditions and other terms. Often “sentence” is used to mean the length of permissible imprisonment.

Sentencing Guidelines Commission: A state agency consisting of 20 voting members appointed by the Governor and four legislators appointed by the presiding officers of the two houses of the Legislature. The Commission maintains adult and juvenile felony sentencing information, evaluates and recommends changes in sentencing and other laws involving adult and juvenile criminal justice and publishes this and other reports. See RCW 9.94A.040-060.

Sentencing Reform Act: The Washington statute establishing a system of determinate sentencing for felonies. The SRA (RCW Chapter 9.94A) was first enacted in 1981 and applies to felonies committed on and after July 1, 1984. It has been amended frequently since enactment.

Serious violent offense: One of the offenses listed in RCW 9.94A.030(31), for which the sentence is consecutive to that for any other offense for which the defendant is being sentenced at the same time.

Seriousness level: One of 15 levels of seriousness for felonies, listed in RCW 9.94A.320. The seriousness level, together with the offender score, determines the standard-range sentence under RCW 9.94A.310. Not the same as felony class.

Sexual motivation: A factor in the commission of an offense that makes it a sex offense and/or justifies an aggravated exceptional sentence. See RCW 9.94A.030(34) and RCW 9.94A.127.

Special Sexual Offender Sentencing Alternative (SSOSA): An alternative sentence given some sex offenders, in which the standard range is suspended, conditioned on jail time and inpatient or outpatient treatment. See RCW 9.94A.120(8).

Standard range: The number of months' confinement to which a judge has discretion to sentence a felony offender, in the absence of aggravating or mitigating circumstances. The standard range is determined by combining the seriousness of the offense with the offender's criminal history on the sentencing grid (see RCW 9.94A.310). A sentence within the standard range may not be appealed.

Trial: In criminal cases, a proceeding where a judge or jury hears evidence and determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of a specified crime or crimes. The state is required to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty.

Violent offense: One of the offenses listed in RCW 9.94A.030(38).
